Labour Department extends sympathy to foreign domestic helpers and their employers affected by No. 5 alarm fire in Tai Po
*****

The Labour Department (LD) said today (November 27) that it is deeply saddened by the fire incident at Wang Fuk Court in Tai Po. The LD extends its deepest condolences to those who tragically lost their lives and wishes all the injured a speedy recovery.

The LD also extends its heartfelt sympathies to the families and employers of the foreign domestic helpers (FDH) who lost their lives in the incident. Affected FDH employers and FDHs who have any enquiries regarding employment matters may call the LD’s dedicated hotline set up for this incident at 3582 8987 (for FDH-related matters), or 2929 4054.
